

Hello Folks;

Roger here with some news from the north. The Canadian border remains closed, and BLR will not be allowed to open this June. I will keep you posted regarding new Canadian regulations and when BLR is allowed to reopen.

I am hoping we can get things going soon. So far there are three options for clients:

- There is space available later this summer, and if I can open by then if any of you are interested please email, text or call.
- I can move the reservations from this summer to 2021
- Deposits can be returned

Best Regards,
Roger
